

HARVEST

The words grace and peace are found throughout the New Testament. Grace is what our holy God gives that we, as sinful people, don't deserve. In Acts 17:25, we learn that "He gives to all life, breath, and all things." His gifts include our very next breath. Even in our darkest hour, strength is given by God so that we can endure. Mercy is what God grants that we don't deserve. In Lamentations 3:22, we read, "Through the Lord's mercies we are not consumed." Even when we're wayward, God gives time and help for us to turn back to Him.

Peace is what God brings to His people. Jesus said: "Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you" (John 14:27). Even in the worst of times, we have inner tranquillity because our God is in control. We can be encouraged that throughout our lives the Lord will give us the grace, mercy, and peace we need to live for Him.

How can you rest in His grace, mercy, and peace this week? How can you live those out this week?

Is there something from the sermon, or from your own devotional time, that spoke to you, and you would like to share?

Is there something you need prayer for this week?
