

HARVEST

Following up from the sermon, where have you seen God doing things in your life that you were not even aware of at the moment? Or, how have you seen God working out His plan in your life?

As you read through the “Sow” passages this week, what does the future revealing of Jesus at His return mean to how you live your life today?

How does the fact that Jesus will return give you hope today?

Is there something from the sermon, or from your own devotional time, that spoke to you, and you would like to share?

Is there something you need prayer for this week?
